

Riva Conditioner is a mild solution of polyacrylic acid developed to partially remove the smear layer of dentin and enamel. This optimizes adhesion of the glass ionomer cement to tooth structure.